COUNTY GIVEN $101,180 FOR FARM GRANTS

Adams County has been allocated $101,180 for payment to farmers for completion of agricultural conservation practices during 1961, J. Glenn Miller, office manager for the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today.

At the same time he urged farmers planning to carry out ACP programs on their farms during the year to make arrangements with the local ASC office in the Adams Electric Cooperative building as quickly as possible.

During 1960, delay on the part of farmers in making their plans known to the local ACP cut $35,500 from the amount allocated to the county during the year.

Agreeing with farmers that it is much easier to make decisions as the year progresses, Miller said, however, that delay in making applications causes the county farmers to lose money that they could receive to aid them in their work. Other counties push "sign ups" early and thus are able to secure more funds than they originally were entitled to when other counties, such as Adams, have unused funds, Miller said.

This year, Adams County was granted $97,000 for agricultural conservation practices at the beginning of the year. March 15 the state took back $12,500; May 18 another $10,000; June 15, $8,000, and August 10, $5,000, and sent those sums to other counties where farmers had signed up early.

Miller said that once a farmer has signed for an ACP program, the money allocated him is held until the work is completed and cannot be removed from the county.

But when the funds are unallocated, the amounts can be removed, as they were this year. As a result farmers in the county who decided on a program late in the season found there were no more funds available in the county; while farmers in other counties who signed up early received payment from funds originally allocated to Adams and then withdrawn.

NOYAN, Que. (AP) — Marjorie Vosburgh, 43, and 11 of her 15 children burned to death today in one of the worst family tragedies in Quebec Province history. ## Belgian King Interrupts Honeymoon When Strikers Demonstrations Continue

By EDDY GILMORE BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — King Baudouin and Queen Fabiola flew homeward from their honeymoon today as 15,000 demonstrating strikers surged through Brussels, smashing windows and overturning automobiles.

The king and his Spanish-born bride of 14 days interrupted their stay near Seville because of the Socialists' strike against the government's austerity program. Officials of the Socialist-led General Workers Federation had criticized the king for remaining in Spain during the crisis.

STONE MOVIE THEATER Near the heart of the capital, demonstrators stoned a movie theater advertising newsreels of the sovereign's wedding on Dec. 15.

The demonstrators stayed clear of Brussels' neutral zone, where police riot squads were ready to break up any effort to enter. The Brussels Palace, Parliament buildings, government offices and ministries are located in the zone.

As the demonstrations entered their 10th day, Pierre Harmel, minister of public administration, disclosed that from 2,000 to 2,400 Belgian soldiers have been recalled from North Atlantic Treaty Organization units in West Germany.

JOIN RIOT POLICE The soldiers joined riot police in guarding government buildings. State police reserves also were called into the capital.

Harmel said the over-all situation showed improvement except in the big port of Antwerp, where the strike was spreading. The port area has been immobilized.

Leo Collard, Socialist party president, said the strike will continue "until our goal is reached." He claimed it was spreading in both the north and south.

The demonstration in Brussels started with a mass meeting of about 10,000 strikers and sympathizers in front of Socialist party (Continued On Page 3)

The staff of the Adams County public assistance board won board commendation for "services beyond the line of duty" in action taken at the December meeting of the assistance board Wednesday evening at the home of its secretary, Mrs. J. Kermit Herete, 39 N. Howard Ave.

The verbal "pat on the back" came after the executive director, Mrs. Verna H. Myers, told the board about 15 "service cases" in which staff members had aided families and individuals with services not involving the expenditure of state money.

In some instances, assistance staff members had helped families on housing problems, helped arrange emergency transportation or gave other emergency help in cases where "there seemed to be no other place for the people to go for help."

ELECT SNEERINGER Mrs. Myers noted one instance in which a Florida Negro had been helped with the writing of a letter to a man in Florida who held a mortgage on the Negro's property there. "The letter meant that the Negro will have a home to go back to there this winter," Mrs. Myers said.

F. Joseph Sneeringer, McSherrytown, was advanced to the chairmanship of the board after serving for the last year as vice chairman. He succeeds the Rev. Charles E. Held, who has been chairman for the last year, his second term in that position. Allen S. Stauffer, Biglerville, was elected as the new vice chairman and Mrs. Herete was re-

SEND HEPFORD TO HOSPITAL; MENTALLY ILL

An order committing Edward W. Hepford, 47-year-old former Harrisburg High School teacher accused of the murder last summer of a Gettysburg man, to the Farview State Hospital, near Scranton, was handed down Wednesday by Judge R. Dixon Herman in Dauphin County court.

Hepford was taken into custody last June 29 and admitted firing shots that caused the death of a Gettysburg tailor, Richard M. Mattingly, 31, 3 Delap Ave.

Unless a further hearing is requested within the next 10 days, the order states, Hepford will be removed from the Dauphin County prison and taken to the state hospital to undergo treatment "as a mentally ill patient with criminal tendencies."

"UNFIT FOR TRIAL"

In completing the report on Hepford's status, Judge Herman pointed out that the findings of a three-man sanity commission that the former teacher "is unfit to stand trial at this time" was taken into consideration in approving his commitment.

Testimony presented to the commission was reviewed by the court after the sanity group ruled last October 3 that Hepford be sent to an institution for the mentally ill for an indefinite period.

Hepford has been in jail since last June 29 in connection with the slaying of Mattingly, whose body was found with a bullet wound in the chest, after his auto was pulled from the Susquehanna River near the M. Harvey Taylor Bridge.

CHARGED AS BURGLAR

Additional charges of burglarizing the property of George W. Spangler, at 1215 N. Front St., and an attempt to break into the Parkway Apts., at 931 N. Front St., Harrisburg, were lodged against Hepford.

Judge Herman Wednesday decreed in the commitment that Hepford is "mentally ill, that he has a criminal tendency, and that he be sent to Farview State Hospital, an institution for patients convicted of crime, charged with crime or with criminal tendencies, to be there detained and treated as a mentally ill person at the expense of said Edward Wilcox Hepford."

Notice of the order, Judge Herman said, "shall be given forthwith to Hepford's counsel (I. Emanuel Meyers), to his nearest available relative and his nearest available friend, who shall be given an opportunity to be heard if they so desire."

Members of the sanity commission ruling on Hepford's condition October 3 were Dr. Howard K. Petry, Dr. Joseph G. Saxon and Atty. Bruce E. Cooper.

MORE POSTS ARE FILLED BY KENNEDY

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy takes part today in a global review of American foreign policy. He also picked a New York banker, Robert V. Roosa, to be under-secretary of the Treasury for monetary affairs.

And Kennedy has chosen Archibald Cox, Harvard law professor and a campaign aide, for the job of solicitor general of the United States—the government's chief trial lawyer.

For a far-ranging look at the uneasy international situation, Kennedy arranged a luncheon meeting and afternoon conference with Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

MORE NEWS LATER

Kennedy and Fulbright may hold a news conference late in the day after their talks at the president-elect's seashore home.

Kennedy considered appointment of Fulbright as secretary of state, but earlier this month passed him over in favor of Dean Rusk, head of the Rockefeller Foundation.

Roosa, 42, who says he's an independent in politics, will be the Treasury department's No. 3 official as undersecretary for monetary affairs. He now is vice president of the New York Federal Reserve Bank in charge of research.

MORE HARVARD TIES

Kennedy chose Roosa after consultation with the secretary of the Treasury-designate, Douglas Dillon, who is undersecretary of state in the outgoing Eisenhower administration.

The No. 2 command post in the Treasury, another undersecretary, is yet to be filled.

As in the case of Cox for solicitor general, Kennedy—a Harvard graduate himself—once more picked a man with Harvard background in selecting Roosa.

Roosa won his bachelor's degree in economics at the University of Michigan, and then served as a tutor and teaching fellow at Harvard University and as an instructor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology while earning a master's and doctor of philosophy degrees.

UNDER BOB KENNEDY

As undersecretary for monetary affairs, Roosa will be directly responsible for managing the $291 billion national debt, subject of course to the approval of Kennedy and Dillon. The job pays $21,000 a year.

Cox, 48, brings to the solicitor general job a broad background of previous service in government.

As solicitor general at a salary of $20,500 a year Cox will work in the justice department under the president-elect's brother, Robert Kennedy, who has been named attorney general. The solicitor general is in charge of all the government's business in the Supreme Court.

TWO MEN DIE IN MINE BLAST

KINGWOOD, W. Va. (AP)—A mine explosion that sounded like a "great gust of wind" brought tragedy Wednesday upon the nearby community of Newburg.

Truman Burke and James Tarleton, both about 24 and residents of Newburg, were trapped deep within the Sanford Phillips coal mine when a gas explosion brought down tons of slate to block their route to freedom.

Rescuers from this area as well as from Morgantown found their bodies shortly before last midnight.

Federal and state mine inspectors planned to enter the mine today to investigate.

The mine, operated by Sanford Phillips, is located about 13 miles southwest of here. It had been idle for several days because of the holidays, but employees entered Wednesday to bring out some loose coal.

Phillips and a foreman had just left the tunnel when the blast occurred. Phillips said the explosion sounded like "a great gust of wind" and sent coal dust spewing to a distance he estimated at 300 feet outside the mouth of the mine.

HONITON, England (AP)—Eden, Phillips, who finished his last novel when he was 97 years old, died today. He was 98 and at work on another novel.

The English playwright, novelist and poet had produced more than 250 books since his first collection of adventure stories appeared in 1888.

Two of Phillips' plays, "The Farmer's Wife" and "Yellow Sands," were hits more than four decades ago.

BODY IN RIVER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Harbor police Wednesday pulled the body of Peter Kulak, 75, from the Delaware River. Kulak was a retired foreman for the Delta File Works.

Police began grappling for the body after a passerby told them he had found a hat and coat at the end of a pier.

BEN-GURION SUGGESTS HE MIGHT RESIGN

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion has hinted he might resign in an effort to force still another investigation into the mysterious ouster of former Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon, informed sources said today.

Lavon was forced out of the government of former Prime Minister Moshe Sharett in 1955 and blamed for a "security mishap." Military censorship has prevented a further description of the incident, but it is believed Lavon was accused of ordering an attack that some diplomats said caused Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser to get arms from the Soviet Union.

The Cabinet approved a report by an investigating committee of ministers Sunday clearing Lavon and finding that a high army officer, whose name has not been disclosed, probably forged a document to pin the blame on the former defense minister.

OBJECTS TO REPORT

The investigating committee, appointed by Ben-Gurion last September, represented all parties in the government.

Political sources said Ben-Gurion refused to join in approval of the committee report and hinted that he may resign, at least temporarily. At any rate he customarily takes a midwinter vacation.

The informants said it was understood Ben-Gurion made the threat in an effort to force leaders of his own Social Democratic party, the Mafai, to insist on a full-scale legal investigation into the whole affair. This would necessitate a cross-examination of Lavon under oath.

AIDE MAY RESIGN

Earlier reports said Foreign Minister Golda Meir, displeased with Ben-Gurion's position, also had threatened to resign but was dissuaded by Finance Minister Levi Eshkol.

An earlier investigating committee in 1954, consisting of Supreme Court Justice Itzhak Olshan and former army chief of staff Maj. Gen. Yacov Dori, was unable to determine the truth about the Lavon affair.

Earlier this year a military investigating committee reported that false evidence apparently had been introduced at the 1954 hearing.

Lavon, still a leading member of Ben-Gurion's Mafai party and now secretary-general of Histadrut, the Israeli federation of Labor, has been demanding vindication for five years.

LONGER TERM WOULD MEAN HIGHER PAY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Dr. Charles H. Boehm said today his department does not now and never has recommended lengthening school terms without compensating adjustments in salaries for teachers.

His comment followed a minor floor hassle Wednesday at the 106th convention of the Pennsylvania State Education Assn. It arose over a routine resolution commending Boehm and his staff.

A PSEA delegate, John Lawry of Washington County, opposed the resolution's original wording on the ground that Boehm "asked the local school boards to lengthen the school term to 200 days without a proportionate increase in salary."

URGES SALARY BOOSTS

Boehm told a newsman today that extension of the school term to 200 days, from the present 180 days, was in fact one of the department's goals over the next 10 years.

He added, however, that salary adjustments came within the province of the local school boards and whenever they had made inquiry to his office, upward salary revisions had been recommended, "especially in cases where teachers were being paid only the minimum state scale."

Boehm said that some districts already have lengthened their terms until, by his estimate, the school year probably averages about 184 days in the state. In most of the cases where teaching days have been added, Boehm said, school boards have made compensating salary adjustments.

Wednesday's resolution was approved after the wording had been changed.

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret and her husband will fly tourist class aboard an Irish airliner when they visit Ireland Saturday. The airline said it would "probably do a little better than normal" in the way of seating arrangements and meals for Mr. and Mrs. Antony Armstrong-Jones.

It will be the first time the princess has ever flown on an ordinary commercial airliner. Usually she travels in a Royal Air Force plane of the queen's flight, but presumably it was thought a military plane might fan anti-British sentiment in the Irish Republic.

EMERGENCY CALLS UNDER DIAL SYSTEM BIG PROBLEM

Littlestown borough council and a committee from the Alpha Fire Co. of Littlestown reached no final decision at council's meeting Tuesday evening on how to arrange for fire, police and ambulance calls after the dial system is installed in that borough.

The firemen's committee then set Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the office of the Littlestown burgess as time for a meeting to seek to work out "a satisfactory solution of the emergency calls to be adopted when the dial telephone system is adopted."

Representing the fire company at Tuesday's meeting in the office of Borough Secretary Roger J. Keefer were Dennis S. Wallick, Henry E. Waltman and Richard Stuller. During a lengthy discussion, Borough Secretary Keefer informed council he would be willing to accept the emergency calls at his office provided council will arrange for a "relief system since it would involve responsibility for 24 hours a day, 365 days a year."

SIDEWALKS BAD

Councilman Charles E. Lemmon reported various sidewalks in the borough are "in bad condition due to ice and snow being left thereon." Council instructed Burgess Elmer G. Miller to notify the property holders who still have snow and ice on the sidewalks that if it is not removed the ordinance governing snow removal will be enforced.

Following a discussion on parking on the first block of Patrick Ave. from W. King St. to the first alley north of W. King St. which was recently widened, council instructed the secretary to authorize the solicitor to draft an ordinance calling for diagonal parking of vehicles on the east side of that block and no parking on the west side.

MAY BUY WELL

After being informed there is a possibility of purchase of a 190-foot, 150-gallon-per-minute artesian drilled well on the former Littlestown Canning Co. property, council recommended to the Littlestown Borough Authority that it purchase the well and sufficient land for the borough's purposes in developing the water system "at a satisfactory price."

Council approved a recommendation of the Metropolitan Edison Co. for revision of street lighting on Lumber St. Cost of the addition of three street lights and increased power of the lights will be approximately $88.

The building committee reported on progress being made towards development of the former E. King St. Grade School building. Approval was given to have emergency lighting equipment at the Alpha fire hall repaired.

GETS VACATION PAY

Council approved payment of five days' pay to Police Chief Calvin W. Mummert in place of five days' vacation time.

A resolution was approved transferring funds in the budget from departments which had surpluses to departments which had exceeded their budgetary expenditures.

Council decided to make no change in the shoulder patches on borough police uniforms following a discussion of possible changes.

Occupants of the officers quarters, a 50-room, 2-story building, were away on holiday leave as flames roared up from the ground floor through the roof. The structure was about 75 per cent destroyed and loss was estimated unofficially at between $50,000 and $75,000.

HURL STONES, BOLTS

As brick bats, stones and nuts and bolts were hurled at buses, streetcars and some stores which refused to close in sympathy with the strikers, the number of demonstrators swelled to about 15,000.

During the demonstration, a delegation of strikers handed in a petition at Premier Gaston Eyskens' office repeating demands for withdrawal of proposed legislation boosting taxes and cutting pensions and social services. The government says only austerity can offset revenue losses from granting independence to the rich Congo.

Eyskens met the delegation for more than an hour. The state-controlled Belgian radio said Eyskens told the strikers' representatives he will not oppose parliamentary discussions of proposed amendments to his program.

He added he was ready to discuss his sweeping omnibus bill with everybody.

The delegation then rejoined the demonstration and made a report. Most of the demonstrators began dispersing, but younger strikers kept up the march.

SIX CHILDREN

BURIED TODAY

HOLYOKE, Mass. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. DuPont came back to Holyoke today with five small coffins containing all but one of their six children—killed in a Christmas Eve fire in their home at Feasterville, Pa.

All of the children were born since DuPont was transferred by his company from Holyoke to the Pennsylvania district 14 years ago as sales representative.

The husband, 37, and wife, 35, were attending a midnight mass Sunday when a priest summoned them from their pew and told them of the tragedy.

A brief fire had asphyxiated Margaret, 12; Katherine, 10; Melanie, 8; Helen, 6, and Robert, 5. Only Laurie, 11, was saved, by a neighbor who brought her down a ladder.

PLAN AREA MEETING
The directors discussed a proposal under which the Adams County board will host an area meeting of boards of assistance of nearby counties here in April to which Dr. William Tollen, state commissioner of public assistance, will be invited.

Case load figures submitted by Mrs. Myers showed there are 30 more cases on the assistance rolls now than a year ago involving 57 individuals. The increases are chiefly in the division of aid to dependent children, general assistance and aid to the disabled.

Currently there are 205 cases of old age assistance involving 210 persons, 104 persons on blind pensions, 128 cases of aid to dependent children involving 576 persons; 52 cases of general assistance involving 102 persons; 51 cases of aid to disabled involving 58 persons, for a total of 540 cases and 1,050 persons. A year ago the totals were 510 cases and 993 persons, Mrs. Myers said.

GOING TO CONFERENCE

The Rev. Mr. Held reported on a meeting he attended recently at Harrisburg on preliminaries for the Washington White House conference on problems of the aging to be held next month. The Rev. Mr. Held will be the only official delegate from this county in the 100-member delegation from Pennsylvania.

Attending Wednesday's meeting were the Rev. Mr. Held, Mrs. Donald Noel, Mr. Sneeringer, Mr. Stauffer and Mrs. Hereter. The absentees were Evan Appier of Littlestown and Clyde Kennedy, York Springs.

Axis Hears Roosevelt In Omnisilence: President Roosevelt's address on world hostilities was greeted today with outspoken satisfaction in London, studied silence in Berlin and a charge from Rome that he is "a man of undeclared war fought against the axis."

C. H. Musselman Tells His Motive For Fine Gift: What prompts or influences a public spirited citizen to do something for his community? What are the motivating thoughts? What brings about the final decision?

C. H. Musselman, of Biglerville, who, for Mrs. Musselman and himself recently announced the presentation of a new $50,000 fully equipped mechanical arts school to the Biglerville school district, was asked these questions in an informal interview, one of the few, if not the only one he ever accorded.

Cold Wave Due To Follow Mild Temperatures: A cold snap was in store for Pennsylvania today in the wake of a drizzling summery spell that sent temperatures soaring to new records in sections of the state.

A heavy fog added to the hazards of the highway over the weekend when at least ten persons were killed in automobile accidents.

Intermittent rains for the past four days raised river crests above normal in some sections, but government forecasters said there was little danger that flood levels would be reached.

Today's Talk

YOUR LIFE

I read a very thought-provoking sentence recently. I give it to you "Life," said this writer, "is very precious—we must give it back to God some day, so let us get the most from it."

It is interesting to note, however, that I have quoted from the letter of a Mother to her son. And if there is anyone who looks life in the face, it is a real Mother.

Of course, compared to all time in its eternal running, life is like a quick breath, but stretching it over its three-score and ten, or more, there is a great deal of time in which to do much.

And when you think of the lasting efforts of men and women whose work has come down through the years and made such an impress upon the world, you are able to appreciate how important it is that not a minute be wasted and that you learn to give and to get.

Deep disappointments, sorrows, and set-backs are all great moulders of character. A person who has never passed through, or stood up to them, is easily swayed when come the storms.

If we had three or four lives to live, we could experiment a little—try out different ways of living. Unfortunately, we have but one with which to play, so far as we know now. So let us make the most of all that we have!

Live as much as you are able according to your own individual ideas as to what constitutes a strong experience—remembering to consider the rights of others as not always second to your own. Learn to bury much of the past and to forget imagined wrongs. Live ahead!

And make people want to have you around.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Hold That Tongue"

Just Folks

A TOAST

Here's to the absent ones tonight,
To the ones who have gone before;Whose laughter once made the old world bright,
Whose voices we hear no more.Here's to the kindred souls we've known,
The hearts that have thrived with love;Here's to the seeds of kindness sown
By the absent ones above.Come, fill up your glasses and drink tonight
To the ones who were wont to cheer;Who loved and laughed with us in delight,
And wept when we showed a tear;Who shared our joys and our sorrows, too,
Whose strength we depended on,Who knew our hearts and whose hearts we knew;
Let's drink to the good souls gone.Mother or wife or child or pal,
Or dear old dad, God bless them!We long for them and we ever shall;
We'd give our all to caress them.So, drink to those who have gone before
With a sigh, if you will, my brothers;To those who brighten the golden shore,
Our wives, our sisters and mothers.

STEVENSON TO FACE VARIETY OF PROBLEMS

By MILTON BESSER

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —Adlai E. Stevenson faces a host of issues capable of producing kingsize headaches when he takes over Jan. 20 as chief U. S. spokesman here.

The main spotlight undoubtedly will be trained on Stevenson when the U. N. General Assembly resumes its 15th session March 7.

Some of his problems will stem from the new situation caused by recently expanded U. N. membership, coming mostly from newly independent African nations.

NO AUTOMATIC MAJORITY

The United States can no longer count on automatic majority support for its proposals. The new nations, along with other members of the Asian-African bloc, have demonstrated their ability to block assembly action. They do not form a common front on all issues, but when they do the Western powers cannot marshal majority support.

It is no secret that the U. S. position on the colonialism issue caused resentment among the new member nations in the assembly session recently recessed.

As for the Congo, the Kennedy administration likely will follow the same course as the Eisenhower administration in giving full support to Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld's efforts to restore peace and unity.

DISARMAMENT ISSUE

Stevenson will also get much

1960 SAW MUCH ACCOMPLISHED IN RELIGION

By JULES LOH

Associated Press Writer

In the realm of religion, mark down the year 1960 as a paradox of turmoil and tranquility.

This was the year of "the religious issue," and beneath the serious debate were manifestations of intolerance and bigotry. It also was the year Christianity visited Rome, and overshadowing the official courtesies was an unprecedented air of dialogue and unity.

It was the year that gave birth to a new phrase: "kneel-in demonstration"; and the year that produced the first Negro cardinal.

RABBIS IN CHURCHES

It was the year swastikas and anti-Jewish slogans defaced synagogues and public buildings; and the year rabbis preached sermons in 400 Methodist churches by invitation.

It also was a year of personal accomplishment.

John F. Kennedy buried the notion a Roman Catholic could not be elected president of the United States. There also were other names that made news; some of them familiar, others in the headlines for the first time:

PROPOSED MERGER

Eugene Carson Blake, stated clerk of the United Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A., who proposed a merger of Methodists, Episcopalians, Presbyterians and members of the United Church of Christ.

Billy Graham, who added a sixth continent to his worldwide evangelizing crusade with a 10-nation "Safari for Souls" in Africa.

Archbishop Gunnar Hultgren, primate of Sweden's Lutheran Church who abandoned tradition and ordained three women ministers.

POPE IN NEWS

Aloysius Cardinal Stepinac of Yugoslavia, whose death cried out against Communist injustices as eloquently as the prelate had in life.

But no names produced more startling religious news in 1960 than those of Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli, Pope John XXIII; and Geoffrey Francis Fisher, archbishop of Canterbury.

Their Dec. 2 meeting in the Vatican was the first time the heads of the two ancient churches had set down together in 500 years, and marked the high point of a year sprinkled with other expressions of growing cordiality in the Christian community.

COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Also in 1960 leaders of 171 Protestant, Eastern Orthodox and Anglican churches gathered in St. Andrews, Scotland, for the 11th annual meeting of the World Council of Churches.

Their chief topic was church unity, and among other moves they drew up a code of behavior which would prohibit proselytizing one another's members. The code awaits final approval at the 1961 meeting in New Delhi.

What threatened to be the most attention on the No. 1 issue left over for March discussion — disarmament.

The Soviet Union will be plugging hard for Khrushchev's proposal for a special assembly summit session on his proposals for total disarmament. The basic Eisenhower position has been a standing offer to resume negotiations in the 10-nation East-West committee that broke up in Geneva last summer. Most diplomats expect the United States to come up with a new approach that will at least try to match the propaganda appeal in Khrushchev's proposal, which was well received in so-called neutralist nations of Asia and Africa.

PRAYER WEEK OPENS TUESDAY

The observance of the Week of Prayer by the churches of Gettysburg and vicinity will begin on Tuesday evening with services at 7:30 o'clock each evening except Saturday through next Sunday evening.

The St. James Lutheran Church, York St., will be the host church this year and the speakers will be: Tuesday and Wednesday, the Rev. Herbert W. Stroup of the Gettysburg Theological Seminary faculty; Thursday and Friday, the Rev. Dr. Harold A. Dunkelberger of the faculty of Gettysburg College, and on Sunday evening, the Rev. Glenn Zug, pastor of the Harrisburg Church of the Brethren.

Each evening, the worship will be in charge of a local pastor and a local church choir will furnish the music.

These services, sponsored by the local ministerium, are open to all.

GENE AUTRY TO PROVIDE GOOD COMPETITION

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Something new has been added to Gene Autry's spacious office in Toluca Lake.

On all four sides are paintings and statues of horses, including Gene's longtime steed, Champion. The newcomer is a dummy of an aged Indian wearing baseball cap and fielding glove and the sign "Joe All-Star, pride of the Golden West Angels."

Explained Gene: "That's our new boss."

As the sports page readers well know, Gene is the boss of the new American League baseball club, the Los Angeles Angels. Some Eastern writers have attacked the big-league expansion as greed and expressed fears that Autry would bring a rodeo atmosphere to the sport.

Gene's reply: "I sat in on sessions with all the owners and I didn't see any evidence of greed. I think the owners are public-spirited businessmen who want to do what is best for the game. The reason for the expansion was that Congress had requested the leagues do something about bringing big-league baseball to cities of expanding population that would like to have it."

GOOD COMPETITION

As to adding showmanship to the game, I don't have any plans in that direction. I think baseball is good as it is. The important element is having good competition, and we hope to field the best team we possibly can. If we have a good team, the public will support us.

Gene wears his millions well. He may ride a bit heavier in the saddle, but his Stetson still fits and he still talks earnestly in his flat Oklahoma tones. He conceded that the Angels will occupy a great deal of his time.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) —Col. De Wayne Nelson, 65, a pioneer in industrial development planning, died Wednesday after an illness of several weeks.

divisive episode of 1960—the religious issue in the presidential campaign—may result in more understanding between Catholics and Protestants. A post-election survey of church leaders showed most felt the campaign-inspired discussions provided a foothold for further conversation which inevitably will lead to better understanding between the two groups.

TANKER BOAT NOT USABLE SAY CREWMEN

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A tanker that broke in two in heavy seas last week was described at a Coast Guard hearing Wednesday by crew members as having unusable lifeboats, a crack in its hull and gaping holes in bulkhead.

Five of the 29 survivors of the Pine Ridge testified at the inquiry. More crewmen are scheduled to testify today.

Seven men were lost when the American tanker broke apart off Cape Hatteras, N. C., last Wednesday.

LOST PROPULSION

Roy A. Noble, of Upper Darby, Pa., the tanker's first pumpman, said that on the morning of Dec. 21, before the ship cracked, the chief mate ordered additional ballast pumped into the ship. The ship left New York for Corpus Christi, Texas, with the No. 4 and 7 tanks in ballast.

"I think there was too much ballast all bunched up in the center of the ship," he said.

"When the order was given to stop the cargo pumps used to pump seawater into the tanks, they lost propulsion. The change in speed made her break up," Noble said.

SHIP BADLY RUSTED

Elbert Freeman of Eagle Spring, N. C., told the board that the interior of the ship was badly rusted out. Some steel plates which should have been three quarters of an inch thick were rusted so thin they could be bent by hand, he said.

"When you were working in the tanks, you could see the men at work in the next tank," Freeman said.

He also said that some of the doors were not water tight, and that doors and portholes were difficult to fasten because some of the handles were missing.

NOT EQUIPPED

Freeman said the lifeboats were not equipped with their normal gear. When the crew checked the lifeboats after the tanker broke, in case they might have to abandon ship, they found the screw plugs for the boats had disappeared.

The Coast Guard board will inspect the stern section of the Pine Ridge at Newport News before the inquiry closes.

SUMMIT, N. J. (AP)—Nicholas Alexander de Tranche, 74, an arctic explorer, died Tuesday. De Tranche was a former commander of the Imperial Russian navy who came to this country in 1923.

Want Air Service Shifted To Phila.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce has proposed that trans-oceanic air service to three New York airports be transferred to International Airport here.

Walter P. Miller Jr., chairman of the chamber's aviation committee, said Wednesday the plan "was conceived with imagination and boldness. It would make Philadelphia the center of world air travel."

Mayor Richardson Dilworth said he didn't think the chamber should enter into such a proposal without prior consultation with the city since the municipal government has the responsibility of financing and operating the airport.

Miller said that a shift of international flights from New York to Philadelphia would alleviate the saturation of air flights at New York's airports.

PATTERSON IS BOXER OF YEAR

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson, the first man to win back the crown, today was named "Fighter of the Year" by Ring Magazine which also picked light heavyweight Giulio Rinaldi of Italy as the winner of its "progress award."

Patterson, previously, had been named the winner of the Edward J. Neil memorial plaque as "Fighter of the Year" by the Boxing Writers Association. The 25-year-old New Yorker, who is supposed to box Ingemar Johansson in a third match March 13 at Miami Beach, lost his title to the Swede in 1959 and won it back by a knockout last June.

Rating the boxers for their accomplishments in 1960, Ring listed heavyweight Sonny Liston, the No. 1 contender, as the runnerup to Patterson in the yearly rankings.

Pone Kingpetch of Thailand, was ranked No. 3 among the fighters of the year for his feat of dethroning Pascual Perez in the flyweight class and then knocking out the veteran Argentine boxer in a rematch.

Jack Ardon of Lakewood, N. J., who averaged 15.1 points a game last season, is majoring in zoology.

EGAN LEADER IN MAC CAGE LOOP SCORING

Players from St. Joseph's, La Salle, Muhlenberg and Temple lead in individual basketball statistics released this week for the University Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference.

St. Joseph's Jack Egan leads in individual scoring with an average of 30 points a game. Battling it out for second place in the scoring race is Joe Steiner of Bucknell with a 22.8 point average, and Bob McAttee of La Salle with a 22.3 point average.

La Salle's George Friedrick leads with the university division sharpshooters in field goal percentage with a .652 mark. Temple's Bruce Drysdale and Russ Gordon rank second and third, respectively, with .643 and .600.

Muhlenberg's George Gillfillan and Temple's Earl Proctor have proved the most accurate from the free throw line. Gillfillan has connected on nine of nine attempts, while Proctor has scored all seven of his attempts for identical 1.000 percentage marks.

Tom Wynne leads in rebounding with an average of 15 rebounds per game. Close behind the leader are Joe Steiner of Bucknell with a 14.8 average and Russ Gordon of Temple with 14.5.

La Salle has the best team of offense mark—an average of 82.6 points scored each game. Tops defensively is Lafayette, who has held its opponent to 50 points in its only MAC game thus far.

BULLET MARKS

Gettysburg's Ron Warner now ranks fourth in individual scoring with a 21.0 average while Bob Parker is 12th with a 16.0 average. Parker is eighth in field goal percentage leaders with an even .500 mark. The Bullets are fifth on team offense with a 69.3 average and sixth in team defense on 67.3.

According to the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau, Warner is 13th among the nation's major college players with a 24.4 point average.

WORKING ON DEFENSE FOR 'GATOR BOWL

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—The coaches of offense-minded Baylor and Florida are thinking a lot about defense as the time approaches for their meeting in the 76th annual Gator Bowl football game Saturday.

"We haven't played a team that puts on as much pressure as Baylor does," said Coach Ray Graves of Florida. "We made a lot of defensive improvement as the season went along but we haven't played against an offense of this type."

Coach John Bridgers of Baylor uses professional-type formations he learned as an assistant coach with the Baltimore Colts. Usually an end splits off from the rest of the line and one of the halfbacks lines up wide on the opposite side.

It is a formation well suited to passing and Baylor throws more than most college teams. The Bears have two quarterbacks who can do it in Ronnie Stanley, Southwest Conference leader in passing and total offense, and Bobby Ply, who blossomed late in the season and is scheduled to start against Florida.

While Florida is working on defense against passing, Baylor's Bridgers is training his Bears to halt Florida's hard running backs and ball-control tactics.

Houston Signs Ken Gregory

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Oilers of the American Football League today held a 1961 contract with Ken Gregory, college football's leading pass receiver.

John Breen, Oilers talent scout and assistant coach, signed the Whittier College star Wednesday in California.

The Baltimore Colts Tuesday selected Gregory as their fourth round choice in the National Football League draft. Houston took him in the 24th round of the American Football League draft.

At Whittier the past season the 6-foot-1, 180-pound Gregory led both small and major colleges in pass receiving with 1,018 yards on 74 catches.

Meanwhile, the Oilers continued to practice in rain and mud for game with the Los Angeles Chargers.

The charges are to arrive Friday and take their final workout Saturday.

Quebec Moves Up To Tighten Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Quebec Aces, playing in the fine form they showed early in the season, once again are threatening to take over second place in the American Hockey League.

The Aces posted their third straight victory Wednesday night, a 4-3 decision over the Rochester Americans, to move within one point of the idle second place Cleveland Barons.

The Springfield Indians stretched their lead to 14 points by downing the last place Providence Reds 6-3 and the Buffalo Bisons strengthened their hold on fourth place by whipping the Hershey Bears 4-3.

Defensesman Jim Morrison was the main cog in the Aces' victory. He scored one goal and assisted on three others.

Little Bruce Cline scored three goals to run his season's total to 22 in leading the Indians' attack.

Phil Maloney's second goal of the game with 4:48 remaining provided the Bisons with their margin of victory and gave them a lead of two points over the fifth place Bears.

HOUSTON, LOS ANGELES PUT 7 ON ALL-STARS

NEW YORK (AP) — Seven players from the Los Angeles Chargers and Houston Oilers who meet Sunday in the American Football League title playoff at Houston were named on the 22-member offensive all-star team.

The All-Stars were selected for the Associated Press by a board of sports writers and sportscasters.

Jack Kemp, Los Angeles quarterback, headed the offensive list along with halfback Paul Lowe and tackle Ron Mix. Back Dick Harris of Los Angeles was placed on the defensive squad.

SAYS INGEAR CAN'T FIGHT

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Archie Moore, the unfrocked light-heavyweight champion, says Ingegar Johansson never could fight a lick and probably will be cringing when he gets in the ring again with Floyd Patterson.

Nevertheless, Moore says, Johansson should at least start talking a good fight to try to beef up the gate for his third heavy-weight title fight with Patterson at Miami in March.

"After studying this individual," Moore told Examiner Columnist Mel Durslag, "I have come to feel for the gate. Ordinarily, I only fear for gates in which I am participating. But, from just an artistic standpoint, Johansson worries me because his verbal form has been most unsatisfactory."

"He'll be cringing," Moore said.

Of the Swede's chances, Archie said: "I would say conservatively that Johansson won't owe confidence. He will probably come into the ring cringing. That left hook that Patterson delivered the last time will leave Ingegar with a lifetime memory."

"Can Johansson fight?" Archie was asked.

"Not a lick," said Moore. "He couldn't fight before, either, but he could talk a good fight. Now that he's silent, he's got nothing going for him."

TO COACH ROUGHRIDERS

REGINA, Sask. (AP) — Steve Owen, 62, who was a player and coach with the New York Giants of the National Football League for 29 years, signed today to coach the 1961 Saskatchewan Roughriders in the Canadian Western Interprovincial Union.

The South elected co-captains Wednesday. The honors went to quarterback Francis Tarkenton of Georgia and Charles (Bo) Strange of Louisiana State.

The North is to elect its co-captains today.

Teams Taper For Blue-Gray Classic

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — With five days of practice under their belts, Blue and Gray football players begin tapering off today for Saturday's game at Montgomery.

Coaches for both sides said most of Wednesday's practice was devoted to review of plays and plays developed since workouts here began last Saturday for the New Year's Eve North-South contest.

The South elected co-captains Wednesday. The honors went to quarterback Francis Tarkenton of Georgia and Charles (Bo) Strange of Louisiana State.

The North is to elect its co-captains today.

Wilkes Wrestlers In Final Round

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — The 29th annual Wilkes College Open Wrestling Tournament move into the semi-final and final round today with favored Pitt holding a big lead.

At the completion of the quarter-final round Wednesday night, Pitt had collected 32 points.

In second place was Bloomsburg State College with 22, Michigan VPI and Wilkes were tied for third with 17 points each.

Last year's defending champion the New York Athletic Club, failed to finish among the top five. Pitt was runner-up in 1959.

Dick Martin of Pitt and Gray Simmons of Lock Haven were among the defending individual champions who won two matches.

Martin defeated Tom Graves of VPI, 11-2, in the 123-pound class then beat Ernest Venturino, also of VPI, 5-0.

Simmons, the 115-pound champ last year but wrestling in the 123-pound class this year, won both his matches by decision—7-4 over Clem Crow of Albany State and 7-4 over James Balquist of Columbia.

Some 35 colleges, universities and athletic clubs are entered in the tournament.

EGGS PELTED AT CELTICS IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Bob Cousy and others of the Boston Celtics, angry over being pelted with eggs by St. Louis Hawk fans, predict that Boston partisans will retaliate.

Celtic Coach Red Auerbach nodded agreement to Cousy's prediction.

The Hawks beat Boston 105-99 Wednesday night, the first time in three meetings they have been able to accomplish the feat. And St. Louis fans apparently expected another disappointing evening and came armed.

BULLETS ON COACH

During a time out late in the fourth quarter, eggs started raining down on the Boston players. The floor had to be mopped and Frank Ramsey was boosted up to wipe off a backboard.

Auerbach told The Associated Press that as he was walking off the floor at the end of the game, a spectator dashed up to within five feet of him and whacked him squarely in the forehead with an egg.

The Boston coach had a red mark where he said the blow struck.

"A BUSH TOWN"

"This is a bush town and you can quote me," Auerbach said. "You know darn well that fans get excited during the game. But if they bring eggs in, they bring 'em to home. They're not going to take 'em home."

Bob Cousy said soberly: "The trouble with things like this is that the people in Boston will read about it and they will come armed too. Incidents like this are progressive and ought to be nipped in the bud."

The next St. Louis appearance in Boston is Jan. 18.

TOP NOTCH BASKETBALL ON TAP TODAY

By JOHN CHANDLER

Some red hot college basketball will be on tap today and tonight when ranking teams clash in holiday tournaments, but the one to watch is the New York duel between Ohio State and St. John's of Brooklyn.

Ohio State, the nation's No. 1 team and unbeaten in seven games, takes on St. John's in the stellar attraction of the Madison Square Garden holiday festival semi-finals. St. John's ranked No. 7, also has won all seven of its games. Two All-Americans, Ohio State's Jerry Lucas and Tony Jackson of St. John's, provide some extra punch in the billing.

The supporting game at the Garden also is a natural, for third ranked St. Bonaventure (8-0) tackles Utah, which lost its first two games but has since captured seven in a row.

INDIANA WINS

Meanwhile, eight teams — four from North Carolina and four from outside — tee off in the Dixie classic first round this afternoon at Raleigh, N.C. Sixth — ranked Duke (7-0) meets Wyoming (3-3) in the night finale.

Fourth-ranked Indiana (6-1) won its first round game in the Los Angeles classic Wednesday night, defeating Stanford 58-50 as big Walt Bellamy led the way with 20 points.

In other first round games, Iowa outlasted California 83-80 in four overtimes, Southern California whipped Minnesota 75-52 and UCLA walloped Michigan State 98-61.

IOWA STATE OUT

Indiana meets UCLA and Iowa opposes Southern California in the semifinals today.

Idaho, Oregon State, Seattle and Arizona State posted first round victories Wednesday in the Far West classic at Portland, Ore. Idaho upset Portland 65-51, Oregon State turned back Wisconsin 56-54, Seattle ousted Washington State 72-61 and Arizona State edged Oregon 54-53.

In addition to the two Far West tournaments, several others started, ended or went through the semifinals in a busy night of basketball.

Kansas eliminated defending champion Iowa State 76-72 and Kansas State ousted Oklahoma 73-52 in the semifinals of the Big Eight tournament at Kansas City.

DETROIT HOLDS TITLE

In the All-College tourney at Oklahoma City Wichita defeated Houston 71-68. Utah State beat Texas Christian in the second game 87-61 which completed the first round. Baylor and New York U., which won first round games Tuesday, play in tonight's semifinals.

The Gator Bowl tourney started at Jacksonville, Fla., with defending champion Georgia whipping Florida State 62-56. In the opener police had to break up a fight near the end as Florida defeated Jacksonville 82-68.

Holy Cross and Miami (Fla.) meet in the finals tonight of the Hurricane classic at Miami Beach.

Detroit retained the Motor City tourney title as Charley North led the Titans to a 77-64 victory over Colorado State University.

The University of Denver beat Penn State 58-50 and captured the Evansville (Ind.) tournament title.

Two Ivy League teams invaded the Big Ten, and Michigan slugged Brown 74-56, while North-western routed Dartmouth 87-71.

NEED COACHES FOR PRO TEAMS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Now that the National Football League draft is over the big questions are:

Who will replace Buck Shaw as head coach of the world champion Philadelphia Eagles?

Who will succeed Jim Lee Howell of the New York Giants?

Can the NFL overcome a six weeks start the American Football League had in beating the bushes and signing players which the new league drafted late in November and early December?

Both Shaw and Howell have retired.

NO LIGHT SHED

The Eagles are expected to announce their new coach next week but they would not shed any light as to whom it would be.

It could be quarterback Norm Van Brocklin, who repeated he was retiring as an active player after the Eagles won the NFL title Monday.

MORE SPECULATION

As for the Giants' picture, New York newspapers insist that Green Bay Coach Vince Lombardi will replace Howell. They speculate that Al Sherman, Howell's No. 1 assistant this year, may wind up as head coach either at Philadelphia or with the new Minnesota Vikings. However, if the Giants do not get Lombardi, Sherman would be a cinch to replace Howell.

Meanwhile, most NFL officials and coaches had left here to begin the task of signing the 280 players from 130 schools drafted in the long two-day session.

Weather Deters Snow Rabbit Kill

HARRISBURG (AP) — Bad weather kept hunters indoors and held down the kill on the opening day Monday of the snowshoe rabbit season, the State Game Commission reports.

The extended grouse and cottontail rabbit season also opened on Monday.

The commission said Wednesday rain, deep snow and ice made the month one of the worst in years. But field officers said more hunters will go afield late in the week if conditions improve.

DELONE EDGES PAST RAMS' 5 FOR 4TH WIN

Staving off a late surge, the Delone Catholic High dribblers edged Kennard-Dale 60-59 at Fawn Grove Wednesday evening.

The Squires (4-3) after taking a 15-14 edge in the first period, led all the way and were on top 37-30 at half time and 49-41 going into the last frame.

Kennard Dale (3-2) hacked away steadily at the Squires lead and with 30 seconds remaining the score stood at 60-59. The Rams gambled on one shot which missed and with four seconds remaining a jump ball was called but neither team could get off a shot in the final moments.

PLAYER INJURED

Clyde Burkins was lost to Kennard-Dale in the first period when he suffered a back injury.

Each team collected 25 goals but Delone netted 10 of 17 foul shots as compared to but nine of 18 for the losers.

Cyril Weaver and Richard Rosensteel were the big men for the Squires with 20 and 15 points, respectively. Paul Godfrey led the Rams with 16.

The Kennard-Dale reserves breezed to an easy 52-33 win in the preliminary.

Delone will be idle until January 10 when it opens the Central Penn Catholic League season against York Catholic at McSherrystown.

GOOD DEFENSE

Good defensive work was evident throughout the game on the part of the Bolts. After a slow start which found Littlestown leading 8-6 at the end of the first period, the countians took command at 26-18 at half time and had little trouble the remainder of the way.

Larry Weikert, Benner and Larry Bair rammed through 18, 17 and 15 points in that order for the winners. Terry Yohe caged an even dozen for the losers.

Littlestown and Central meet Friday at 8 p.m., the game preceded by the consolation between Susquehannock and Dallastown at 7.

1961 Resolution—Success—Concentrated Hard Work

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato: Millions of Americans will probably write as their biggest resolution of 1961—"I will become a success."
Millions probably made the same stern resolve a year ago. What happened? Most of those who sought success failed to attain it.
TOUGH SEASON
The reason why is hard to figure—particularly if, as we can probably assume in most cases, success is defined as the acquirement of more money.
There is no great secret about this. Almost unanimously those who have achieved wealth by their own efforts say they did so by a single means—concentrated hard work, intense application of their energy to the simple goal of making more money.
This is true in any field. It takes more than a gun and raw courage, for example, to become a successful bank robber. It takes endless hours of planning, study and rehearsal. It takes personal ability of a high order to assemble a staff of trained and dependable associates.
SUCCESS NOT EASY
Even in his day, Jesse James had to learn to ride a horse. No successful bank robbing is not for the idle dreamer.
Nor is success in any other avenue of endeavor. Even Jacques Casanova, the world's greatest tattle-tale lover, had to climb hundreds of trellises to hundreds of balconies to win undying fame. It wasn't easy.
Hard work as a means of success, however, has never been a popular recipe with the masses. They cling to the superstition there is an easier way.
TWO EASY WAYS
There is. In fact, there are two:
1. Marry the boss' daughter—if he has no sons to leave his business to.
2. Inherit money.
But since there is a shortage of bosses with marriageable daughters, and few dotting old aunts with fat bank accounts, many seek still a third easy magic formula.
The literary market is flooded with books giving so-called inside tips on how to achieve success. In most cases these self-help books don't actually make one a success. But if read in bed at night, they sometimes provide a remarkable cure for insomnia—thus giving one more strength to daydream at the office on the job during the day.
FOR LOW PAID WORKERS
Most of such books are aimed at low-paid workers who are sure that if they had lots of money they would have lots of happiness.
We have figured out our own ingenious way to quick wealth. It involves some work—but not too much.
We are going to write a "how to" book aimed solely at wealthy people whom the world recognizes as self-made successes.
Practically every such person we have met has an inner sorrow. Success hasn't been the bonfire of happiness he expected.
NO FUN AT TOP
"There isn't much fun at the top," he says. "I had more fun when I was struggling up the ladder."
Such prosperous failures are desperately in need of help if they are ever to find real success. We intend to provide it.
The title of our book will be, "How to get rid of your money and be poor and happy again through a positive mental attitude."
There is only one hitch. So far we haven't been able to find a publisher.

The church will participate in the "Bells For Brotherhood" by ringing the bell on New Year's Eve, along with a hundred other churches in this section of Pennsylvania.
Catechetical classes are being held each Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. A record enrollment of 40 is reported for the class.
A "Week of Prayer" service will be held on January 4 at 7:30 in the United Church of Christ with Rev. L. J. Karschner preaching.
Jeffrey Baker will be the acolyte for the month of January. Mrs. Luther Rohrbach and Mrs. L. J. Karschner are the members of the altar guild who will serve next month. Mrs. Charles Swope, president of the Altar Guild, announces that there will be a meeting of the guild on January 8 at 7:30 in the parlor.
During the service last Sunday, the altar was adorned with flowers presented in memory of Archie D. Leib by the Walter Craumer family. White gifts amounting to $1,544 were presented by the organizations of the church. There will be used toward eliminating the debt and equipping the social room for educational purposes.

Committee to be in hands of LBJ's friends

WASHINGTON (AP) — Friends of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, D-Tex., apparently are going to retain control of the Senate Democratic Policy Committee in the new Congress.
Democratic leaders are reported to have agreed on the selection of Sens. Warren G. Magnuson of Washington and John O. Pastore of Rhode Island to fill two vacancies on the group which passes on legislation to be placed before the Senate.
Magnuson and Pastore class themselves as liberals. But their expected selection may be greeted with something less than enthusiasm by such past critics of Johnson's middle-road course as Sens. Paul Douglas of Illinois and Joseph S. Clark Jr. of Pennsylvania.
SELF-STYLED LIBERALS
As the committee is beginning to stack up, self-styled liberals apparently are going to be in the majority. But they include no outspoken critic of the man who will become vice president on Jan. 20.
Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, expected to be promoted from Johnson's assistant to the top

There is. In fact, there are two:
1. Marry the boss' daughter—if he has no sons to leave his business to.
2. Inherit money.
But since there is a shortage of bosses with marriageable daughters, and few dotting old aunts with fat bank accounts, many seek still a third easy magic formula.
The literary market is flooded with books giving so-called inside tips on how to achieve success. In most cases these self-help books don't actually make one a success. But if read in bed at night, they sometimes provide a remarkable cure for insomnia—thus giving one more strength to daydream at the office on the job during the day.
FOR LOW PAID WORKERS
Most of such books are aimed at low-paid workers who are sure that if they had lots of money they would have lots of happiness.
We have figured out our own ingenious way to quick wealth. It involves some work—but not too much.
We are going to write a "how to" book aimed solely at wealthy people whom the world recognizes as self-made successes.
Practically every such person we have met has an inner sorrow. Success hasn't been the bonfire of happiness he expected.
NO FUN AT TOP
"There isn't much fun at the top," he says. "I had more fun when I was struggling up the ladder."
Such prosperous failures are desperately in need of help if they are ever to find real success. We intend to provide it.
The title of our book will be, "How to get rid of your money and be poor and happy again through a positive mental attitude."
There is only one hitch. So far we haven't been able to find a publisher.

PSEA URGING FEDERAL AID TO EDUCATION

HARRISBURG (AP)—A resolution urging that Congress approve federal aid to education topped a list of proposals considered Wednesday by the Pennsylvania State Education Association.
"We assert that the immediate and pressing financial crisis faced by our schools requires substantial increases in support at the local, state and federal levels," the proposed resolution says.
The resolution is one of 32 which was included in the report of the Resolutions Committee during the main business session of the PSEA convention.
CHOOSE OFFICERS
The large educator association opened its three-day convention here Tuesday with department meetings.
In the opening business session of the House of Delegates Tuesday night, G. Baker Thompson, superintendent of Delaware County schools, was nominated without opposition as the new PSEA president.
Another proposal in the Resolutions Committee report urges continued effort for higher salaries to attract quality teachers. The resolution does not mention a specific amount but the PSEA Legislative Committee recommended that the group re-submit a proposal rejected by the 1959 legislature. The measure was estimated to cost $33 million per year.
COMMEND GOVERNOR
Other resolutions in the report would permit reimbursement to all school districts for all children transported to school, endorse daily Bible readings in public schools without comment, recommend more state scholarships to college, reaffirm the group's belief in integration and commend Gov. Lawrence for appointment of his special committee to study education.
On Tuesday the Department of Classroom Teachers, largest of five in the association, passed a separate resolution calling for continued work toward higher salaries.
WANT $6,000 AS START
The department also elected E. Ray Shank, 47, Norristown, as its new president, succeeding Mrs. Rachel Shupe, Beaver.
The classroom teachers' proposal called for a starting salary of $6,000 for teachers with a bachelor's degree which includes specific preparation for teaching and a salary of $13,000 or more for classroom teachers with five years of teacher preparation and 15 years of experience.
At the same time, they rejected a proposal that a bachelor's degree, including professional preparation and probationary teaching, be required for admission to their profession.

DOUGLAS WILL HEAD STUDY OF "HURT" AREAS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A blueprint for a multi-million dollar attack on the problem of depressed areas is ready for President-elect John F. Kennedy.
Kennedy appointed a task force, headed by Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., to draw up the plan so he could carry out one of his key campaign promises—to help chronically distressed areas typified by the coal fields of West Virginia.
Douglas reported Tuesday night, after a seven-hour meeting of the group, that "all substantive questions have been more or less resolved," with only some of the language remaining to be re-drafted.
NO MORE MEETINGS
He said no further meetings would be needed before the report is presented to Kennedy on Jan. 2, a day later than previously planned. Douglas declined to give any details of the plan, saying the group was created to advise Kennedy and it would be up to the President-elect to release the report if he wishes.
But the informants who took a part in the meeting said it contained three major parts:
1. Doubling the amount of surplus government food distributed to the needy in depressed areas.
2. A temporary increase in unemployment compensation benefits.
LONG RANGE PROGRAM
3. A long range program designed to put new life in areas of chronic unemployment.
The same sources said the report will recommend creation of regional redevelopment boards, composed of local residents, to coordinate the programs. The informants gave these details of the report:
It will propose a speed up start on job-creating public works projects; federal aid to train chronically unemployed persons and re-train those, like miners, whose regular jobs have dwindled.
It also will propose more research to develop markets here and abroad for coal products and the products of other depressed areas, and propose a better job placement and counseling service. Government contracts would be routed to areas where unemployment is high.
Legislation was also proposed to do what presidential orders could not. It will closely resemble a measure passed by the Senate in 1959, calling for loans and grants of many millions to needy areas.
A House version of this measure finally was accepted by the Senate, President Eisenhower vetoed it.

Kennedy May Have To Pick Few Ambassadors From Wealthy Ranks

By ENDRE MARTON
WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless President-elect John F. Kennedy can convince Congress that American ambassadors need more expensive money, he'll have to fill some top diplomatic posts from the ranks of the wealthy.

Kennedy started a move in the direction of more expensive money this week when he had an amicable discussion of the problem at Palm Beach with Rep. John Rooney, D-N.Y. Rooney has referred to ambassadorial entertainment funds as "booze allowances." As chairman of a House Appropriations subcommittee Rooney has fought for years against increasing them.

FATHER SPENT MUCH

Rooney reported that the president-elect's father, Joseph Kennedy, felt obliged to spend about $100,000 a year of his own money while he was ambassador to Great Britain. Such sums are not usually found in the bank accounts of career diplomats of the type Kennedy reportedly wants to send to some of the most important—and expensive—foreign capitals.

Nobody denies that the country has had a number of outstanding amateur ambassadors. Among the 20 noncareer appointees serving abroad today are some excellent men, State Department professionals agree.

ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE

But the present system makes it virtually impossible for a career man to accept an assignment to London, Paris, or a similar major post. Moreover the president could not send a noncareer but brilliant man, such as a university professor who is an expert on international problems, to such a post unless he was also rich. Officials feel this is a dangerous limitation.

The pay of an ambassador varies from $20,000 to $27,500 a year, which means that an ambassador in the highest category gets more than the secretary of state, whose pay is only $25,000 a year.

Besides his pay, the ambassador gets two allowances. The first

MRS. RALPH LONG

EMMITSBURG—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sweeney and family, Thurmont, visited on Sunday with Mrs. Sweeney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kelly.

Visitors on Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold included Mr. and Mrs. Willard Weikert and family, Gettysburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitzer and family, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers Topper and daughter, Patsy, of Mt. Airy, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Topper and other relatives in town.

J. Ward Kerrigan spent the Christmas holidays at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kerrigan, and family in St. Joseph, Mich.

is the entertainment allowance. The other is the house allowance for the upkeep of his residence.

ALLOWANCES

It is generally known that ambassadors at major posts get $6,000 a year for entertaining and a house allowance ranging from $10,000 to $15,000 a year.

Therefore, it has been necessary to appoint rich men to certain posts. If the department was lucky it got a rich man like Douglas Dillon, now undersecretary of state and Kennedy's Treasury secretary-designate. Dillon started his public career as ambassador to France.

How much these rich men spend from their own money is their business and anybody's guess; the State Department has no way of knowing.

In some posts the U. S. military comes to the aid of the diplomats. In Berlin, for instance, the military picks up the tab for the State Department, which has a sizable group of diplomats there.

The president-elect has to persuade Rooney's committee to help if he wants to pick, as rumored, Charles E. Bohner as his envoy to Paris. Until then, however, he will be limited to men who can afford to pay up to $100,000 a year from their own pockets for representing the United States.

Says Eastern Loop Is Far Superior

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Buck Shaw of the world champion Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League says he thinks "the Western Conference is a good step below most of the teams in the East (Conference)."

Shaw replied, "No," Wednesday when asked if he thought the Green Bay Packers, whom the Eagles defeated 17-13 Monday for the title, were the best the Eagles had faced all season. Then he added he thought the Eastern Conference was better.

"I thought the Cleveland Browns had a helluva team," said Shaw. "And the Giants and the Steelers, too, were great. I still can't help wondering how we beat them."

Blames Cold War On Human Nature; Points Way Out Of Sir Charles Snow's Peril

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—There is a way to avoid H-bomb war horrors, a psychologist declared today.

He blamed the cold war mainly on human nature and the idea that mighty defenses assure security.

The way out lies through realizing this, and then seeking new ideas, said Dr. Charles E. Osgood of the University of Illinois.

SNOW'S PREDICTION

He spoke after a famous British scientist-novelist, Sir Charles P. Snow, had predicted that within, at most, six years Red China and some other countries would have nuclear bombs.

"Within, at most, 10 years, some of those bombs are going off" unless scientists and others act to prevent it, Sir Charles said.

Dr. Ralph Lapp, physicist of Arlington, Va., presented private estimates of this country's tremendous nuclear power.

HAVE VAST POWER

He said he figures the United States now has nuclear weapons equal to 50,000 of the atom bombs which destroyed Hiroshima, and could produce the equivalent of 30,000 more in a half dozen more years.

The scientists addressed sessions of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Sir Charles spoke Tuesday night and the others today in sessions sponsored by an AAAS Committee on Science in the Promotion of Human Welfare.

Dr. Osgood said "nations today are lumbering down the one habitual path to 'security'—bigger and better weapons—gathering as they go tensions which make it less and less possible to conceive of any other alternatives."

WORLD GOVERNMENT

A world government may be the only permanent solution, he said.

To halt the arms race, Osgood suggested one-sided steps, announced in advance, to reduce tensions. If carefully done, "pressures of public opinion both internal and external would force reciprocation."

This, he said, "assumes that the Russians are more like us than bogeymen, that they would like to find a way out of this mess as much as we would, that their motivations are derived more from insecurity than from the urge to world domination."

Bounced Between Two Cars; Is Killed

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A man hurrying across a street to catch a bus was bounced between two cars and killed Tuesday night.

Police Sgt. William J. Myers said D. Scott Neil, 68, Williamsport, darted across High Street (U. S. 15) when he was struck by a car driven by R. L. Doods, of Williamsport.

Neil was bounced into the rear left wheel of an oncoming car driven by William Zimmerman, also of Williamsport, Myers said. The car had to be jacked to remove Neil's body.

He was the third traffic victim in five days in Lycoming County and the 26th of the year. Last year, there were 25 traffic deaths in the county.

Why are some drugs like
"ecstasy sauce?"

If you read "Li'l Abner" you may recall how the Gourmet's Club plotted to make "Ecstasy Sauce" from the Yokums' pet pig, Salomey. Recipe: Boil down one hammy alabamas (Salomey) until just one single, solitary delicious drop remains—and that is "Ecstasy Sauce." In terms of food, this is humorously ridiculous, but it's actually routine in the making of drugs. Often hundreds of pounds of raw materials must be processed and reprocessed to obtain one tiny pinch of the active medication. Which helps explain why modern drugs are so potent, and why we pharmacists dispense them only when your physician writes a prescription.

Eugene Zuckert Is Named Secretary Of Air Force

By GEOFFREY GOULD
WASHINGTON (AP)—Eugene Zuckert, who will be secretary of the Air Force in the new Democratic administration, has a top level background for the job.

He was an assistant to the first man to hold that post, Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo.

Zuckert, whose appointment was announced Wednesday at Palm Beach, Fla., by President-elect John F. Kennedy, has held a wide variety of government positions. He worked for the Securities and Exchange Commission in 1937 when he was fresh out of Yale Law School, and in 1952 became a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.

STOCKY AND BALDING

He left the AEC in 1954 and has been a Washington lawyer and management consultant since then.

At 49, Zuckert is stocky and balding.

As a schoolboy he attended the Salisbury, Conn., preparatory school where his roommate was G. Mennen Williams, retiring governor of Michigan who has been named by Kennedy to be assistant secretary of state.

At Yale Law School, Zuckert went through an experimental course proposed by William O. Douglas, now a member of the Supreme Court, which combined instruction at Yale with courses at the Harvard graduate school of business administration.

WAS AN INSTRUCTOR

After serving with the Securities and Exchange Commission for three years, Zuckert in 1940 returned to the Harvard institution as an instructor, later becoming an assistant professor and assistant dean.

During the same years, 1940-44, Zuckert was a consultant to the then Army Air Force and taught at a statistical school for officers at Harvard.

Zuckert went to the office of chief of naval operations in Washington in 1944, working on a Navy inventory control plan with the rank of lieutenant, junior grade.

In 1945 he became an assistant to Symington, who then was head of the Surplus Property Administration.

COMPTROLLER SYSTEM

When the Air Force was created as a separate force in 1947, Symington became its first civilian head. He brought Zuckert with him as an assistant secretary.

Zuckert developed a comptroller system in the Air Force, the first of the three services to have one. Later this innovation was enacted into law for all three as a result of Hoover Commission recommendations.

He was named to the Atomic Energy Commission in 1952 by President Harry S. Truman.

Zuckert has been described as friendly but quiet and self-effacing. His motto is "be objective." Like Kennedy, he enjoys golf.

Zuckert has been married twice and has three children.

TV FEATURES 6 BOWL GAMES OVER WEEKEND

NEW YORK (AP)—If you don't like football, this will be a good weekend to disconnect the TV set. Between Saturday and Monday, a total of six gridiron battles will enliven the screen, leaving time for precious little else on those two days.

On Saturday NBC will carry the Blue and Gray All Star game from Mobile, Ala. (1:15 p.m. EST) and continue on with the East-West Shrine game from San Francisco (4:45).

ROSE BOWL TOURNAMENT

On Monday both NBC and ABC will have cameras and commentators covering the annual Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, prelude to the Rose Bowl game between Minnesota and Washington later in the day. CBS will bring us the Missouri-Navy Orange Bowl game from Miami (12:45 p.m.) followed at (3:45) by the Arkansas-Duke Cotton Bowl game from Dallas. And then there's that Pasadena Gophers-Huskies struggle starting at 4:45 p.m. All this adds up to quite a few huddles.

There are a few other items of viewing interest during the next seven days.

Tonight, there's NBC's annual get-together of its far-flung correspondents for their thinking-out-loud session (9-10).

NBC's "Omnibus" will give us a preview of New York's Lincoln

LASSITUDE IS SEEN BETWEEN THE HOLIDAYS

NEW YORK (AP)—Whatever happened to "Jingle Bells?"

There was a tune that was sweeping the country from coast to coast last week. But it seems to have died out in the last couple of days. Maybe too much over exposure.

"Have a nice Christmas?" asks the pretty secretary, returning to work a day late from the holidays. "No thanks!" grumbles the office grouch. "Just had one."

VIEW OF LASSITUDE

An unknown virus of lassitude sweeps the nation between the departure of Santa Claus and the arrival of the New Year.

It is the week of "the great letdown." Everybody rests on his oars in the doldrums of desire.

No one wants to sing a carol. No one wants to throw a snowball. Life settles down into a vast sluggishness of mind and body and spirit. It becomes a big fat yawn.

ALL WORN OUT

Everyone is seasonally worn out from welcomes and wassail and turkey and pudding and good will and shopping and mailing packages and opening packages.

Everyone secretly wants to crawl into a cocoon and dwell there and dream there until the first robin of spring blows his rusty bugle.

Who wants to be up and doing?

At home the housewife takes a longer afternoon nap on the couch than usual. In the evening she sits and stares at the winking, blinking Christmas tree, which has already begun to shed its needles. She knows she should be scribbling Happy New Year cards to the people she forgot to send Christmas cards to, but somehow she doesn't feel quite up to it.

KEEP STAFF AWAKE

At the office you'd have to fire a 21-gun salute throughout the day to keep the staff awake. The tasks they now spend all week postponing they'd ordinarily romp through in half a morning any other time of the year.

Yep, the hired hand knows he ought to buckle down and wind up his yearend report. But instead he puts his feet on his desk and stares vacantly into space, robbed of all will to performance.

The boss is in the same fix. He knows he ought to be planning the firm's progress in the year ahead, but he doesn't want to. He knows that at least he ought to go out and bowl out the hired hand for doing nothing.

BOSS IS SORE

But is it worth the trouble? No, not now. So the boss puts his feet were Maj. and Mrs. William Sell and family, Frederick; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sell and family, Walkersville; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lowman, and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Sell, and daughter, Donald Sell, Gene Sell, Miss Dorothy Myerly and Miss Pearl Bollinger.

Week of prayer service will begin Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church. Dr. Howard Bream, professor of Bible at the Gettysburg Seminary, will be the speaker.

John Hoagland Jr., New York City, spent the Christmas holidays with his mother, Mrs. John Hoagland. They were Christmas Day dinner guests of Mrs. Hoagland's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sharrer and son, Raymond, Pikesville.

on his desk, too, and stares unseeing at the pictures on his wall.

Ennui holds the race of mankind from its usual promise. It is easier to postpone everything than to do anything.

The virus will pass. The great letdown will end. In another few days the world will hum as busily and shout as stridently as it usually does.

But in the week between Christmas and New Year's, personal character—plus a few teaspoon-

Bernard Goldfine May Stand Trial

BOSTON (AP)—U.S. Atty. Elliot Richardson says he believes Bernard Goldfine may be well enough to stand trial on charges of evading $790,000 income taxes. Richardson said Monday night he filed a motion Dec. 8 for removal of Goldfine from the hospital.

examination of the Boston industrialist to determine his mental competency.

Goldfine, 70, held in federal custody, was discharged from a Washington mental hospital last week by order of U.S. Dist. Judge George L. Hart Jr. The judge released Goldfine in custody of his son, Solomon, of Scarsdale, N.Y., for private psychiatric care.

Richardson said if Goldfine is well enough to be released from the Washington hospital, he may be well enough to stand trial.

BIG FLORIDA THEFT NETS $400,000

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A key, combination, timetable and teamwork formed the ingredients for Florida's biggest burglary—a neat $400,000 theft from the vault of an armored car service.

Police and FBI agents were still trying to fit the pieces together today, more than 50 hours after thieves carted away the loot in 19 moneybags.

The vault contained an estimated $1 million in cash and checks. All of the sacks containing coins were left behind.

INSIDE JOB

Investigators agreed that the theft could have been executed only with knowledge or actual aid provided by an employee or former employee.

"It was definitely an inside job," E. A. Rasdale, president of the firm, said. "They knew what they were doing and timed the whole thing just right."

All of the loss, the firm's first theft in its 23 years of operation, was insured.

Authorities pieced the burglary together like this:

2 OR 4 BURGLARS

The intruders—at least two and perhaps as many as four—entered the company's one-story building a few minutes after midnight Tuesday. They used a key to open the front door.

An alarm sounded at a burglar protective agency several blocks away when the door opened. One of the men followed the password procedure used by employees when entering and leaving the building at night. He telephoned the agency and gave a name and code number.

9-MINUTE DELAY

It took the operator six minutes to determine that the name and number failed to match those on file with the agency. Police arrived at the scene three minutes after the operator called them.

During the nine minutes which elapsed, the intruders walked through an unlocked door to the vault, opened it by dialing the combination, carried out the sacks and escaped.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Faith plays an important part in the busy lives of Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon and his bodyguard-chauffeur, Bill Newell.

Bill, a state policeman and former Marine boxer, not only drives the official car with a steady hand but scans the crowd during the governor's public appearances and examines suspicious mail.

Despite their many engagements and official duties, the two of them find time during trips for occasional roadside prayer or for religious discussions and Bible reading in hotel rooms.

"Following Jesus Christ has been an experience of increasing challenge, adventure and happiness," says the governor. "No matter what field we are in, we are called upon to give our complete allegiance to Him."

Bill tells me that faith has given him an inner strength "deeper and more complete" in every respect than before, and adds the quotation, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

EDUCATION IN ADULTHOOD IS BEING URGED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Schoolmen were urged today to plan for a continuing education through adulthood.

"We are in an age of change where no person's education can be considered complete," declared Mrs. Harold G. Moore, Wesleyville, president of the Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Moore was one of the scheduled speakers at the final general session of the 108th annual Pennsylvania State Education Association convention.

TO HEAR GOVERNOR

Gov. Lawrence also was scheduled to speak at the closing session.

In its big business session Wednesday, the delegates passed resolutions urging the jobs with the Department of Public Instruction be filled on the basis of ability rather than political patronage; higher salaries for teachers; federal aid for education, under local control; end of emergency teaching certificates, and continuation of daily Bible readings in public schools.

However, the delegates balked at a resolution commending Dr. Charles H. Boehm, state superintendent of public instruction, on his policies and procedures for improving education.

WANTS 200 DAYS

"He asked the local school boards to lengthen the school term to 200 days without a proportionate increase in salary," declared John Lawry, Washington County, in opposing the original wording of the proposal.

Lawry said supporting the resolution would mean that he favored giving "200 days for 180 days pay."

The proposal passed after delegates inserted three words so that the resolution commended the state staff for developing policies and procedures "which are designed" to improve the program and educators' position.

NEED NEW CONCEPT

Boehm told the delegates that to meet the goals of education in the future a new concept of teacher compensation will have to be adopted to secure many more of the college graduates coming from the highest competency level.

Boehm said that the educational program for the new decade will challenge the intellectual capacities of the teachers as well as of those of the pupils.

"We will require even greater public commitment to education and a higher priority in teachers' salaries, one which is commensurate with the worth of the services of the profession to society," he added.

Other resolutions approved by the delegates recommended:

Legislation to correct underassessments of property at the local level and revision of the formulae for division of state subsidies to local districts in the interest of equalization of educational opportunity.

Consideration of geographical limitations as well as pupil population in reorganizing school districts.

Reimbursement to school districts for transportation of all the children to public schools.

Says Israel Not A Threat To World

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The free nations of the world should be reassured, not disturbed, by Israel's efforts to develop atomic energy for its own use, Gov. Lawrence said Wednesday night in a speech for a Jewish gathering.

"There are those, of course, who still hold to the theory that every new accomplishment in atomic energy, by any nation, poses a new threat to world order," Lawrence said.

The Pennsylvania governor spoke for an Israel bonds meeting at the Jewish Community Center.

"Since the first bombs were exploded over Nagasaki and Hiroshima, any hope a nation might have to maintain an exclusive atomic club is futile," he said.

Israel's constant effort has been for peaceful existence, Lawrence said, and the free nations of the world have every reason to feel pride in Israel's atomic power achievements.

To Visit Heart Hospital Friday

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dr. Henrique Garcia-Monreal, Venezuelan member of the World Health Organization, will visit in nearby Chester Hospital Friday to see how Delaware County is rehabilitating stroke patients.

The program, started last May under sponsorship by the Heart Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania, the U. S. Public Health Service and the Pennsylvania Health Department, is the first of its kind in the nation. Officials report it already has helped in recovery of 38 stroke patients.

NIXON DUCKS TRIBUTE ON TV

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has turned down an invitation to participate in a "Tribute to a Patriot" TV show praising President Eisenhower.

Nixon's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, said Wednesday night there were two reasons Nixon declined the invitation:

"The key time when they wanted him to tape a part of the program came when he had to be out of town."

"In addition he has adopted a policy not to go on television for a while. This is not permanent, but he thinks that in deference to Mr. Kennedy he should not for the time being do anything publicly in the way of television appearances, news conferences or the like. He has turned down other shows beside this one."

Klein added, "As for anything between himself and the President—of course he has saluted the President many times in the past and will do so many times in the future. It isn't necessary that he do it on any one particular TV show."

The NBC program will portray Eisenhower's career from boyhood to the presidency. It is scheduled for Jan. 10.

Coast Guard To Investigate Cause Of Tanker Breaking Up

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—The fate of the stern section of the storm-broken tanker Pine Ridge remained undecided today but a member of the crew revealed that next spring the ship was to have been rebuilt in a Japanese shipyard.

First Assistant Engineer Ernest M. Lovaasen of Texas City, Tex., said the ship was to have been taken to Japan where the bow and stern would be cut off and attached to a new hull already under construction. To be determined now is whether the stern will be rebuilt or scrapped.

The stern was berthed here Tuesday morning after an arduous tow by commercial tugs. Aboard were four crewmen and the Pine Ridge's chief engineer, John Richard, of Claymont, Del. Richard had remained on the stern section to protect the owners' salvage rights.

MET BY WIFE

Richard, met by his wife, declined to talk to newsmen on the pier except to say "I'm tired. I'm sorry fellows. I'm glad to be back ashore."

Tuesday night, celebrating his 37th birthday at his Claymont home, he said he merely did "what the captain would have done" in remaining aboard the stern of the Pine Ridge.

"I was scared," he said. I would not have stayed aboard that hull were I free to leave it."

SIX CREWMEN LOST

The Pine Ridge broke her back in 100-mile gale winds off Cape Hatteras, N. C., last Wednesday. Her master, Capt. Clark Snyder, 44, of Havertown, Pa., and six of his crew members are missing and presumed drowned.

Helicopters from the Aircraft Carrier Valley Forge on Thursday lifted 28 other crewmen off the stern section to safety. Richard stayed aboard to protect salvage rights of his company.

Officials at the Newport News Ship Building and Drydock Co., said the stern was in good condition considering the ordeal it had been in, but Lovaasen confirmed complaints of some crewmen that the Pine Ridge was a "rustbucket."

He said the bulkheads were rusted enough "so you could punch a hole through them with a hammer." He said most of the structural strength of the tanker was in its keel and hull, however, and added that the vessel had passed a coast guard hull inspection in early November.

A Coast Guard hearing opened Wednesday in Norfolk into the cause of the ship's breaking up.

Honor Murtaugh As Man-of-the-year

NEW YORK (AP)—Sport Magazine has selected manager Danny Murtaugh of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates as "Man of the Year" in sports.

Top performers in 12 fields also were named Wednesday by the magazine. They were:

Says Bob Kennedy Will Be Most Controversial Figure

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Robert Kennedy brings a lot of energy to a job that can use it—as attorney general and head of the wide activities of the Justice Department.

With the exception of the outgoing attorney general, William Rogers, Kennedy's new job has been held by a long line of lawyers not distinguished for fiery zest.

As head of the Justice Department Robert will have enough to keep him busy without being an adviser—especially on politics—to his brother, President-elect John F. Kennedy, although he almost certainly will continue to do some political advising.

Many of the chores Robert undertook before can now be shifted to John M. Bailey, President-elect Kennedy's own choice for chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

HAS BROOD POWERS

The Justice Department is such a vague official identification that it is easy to fail to recognize the broad power over many fields of American life given to Robert by his brother.

Under the department's broad umbrella come the FBI, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the Board of Immigration Appeals, the Bureau of Prisons, the Board of Parole, the United States Marshal's office and around 30,000 employees, of whom about 5,000 are lawyers.

Social Security

Q. I plan to retire six months from now when I become 65 years of age. Is it too early for me to start getting ready to make my application for social security?

A. No. In fact, we urge you to call at the social security office and inquire as to the records and proofs you will need when you file. They can tell you what records will be needed and the easiest way to get them.

Q. My husband died three years ago. I will become 62 years of age next month and would like to know if I should file my application for benefits now or should I wait until I am 62?

A. You may file your application as much as three months before you reach age 62. We suggest you file your application at the earliest opportunity. You will need proof of your age, proof of your marriage and your husband's social security number when you call at our office. If you have a social security number of your own be sure to bring your card with you.

Q. The clerk of the county in which I was born tells me that by birth was not recorded. I will be age 62 next year and expect to file an application for benefits on my husband's social security account. My husband was able to obtain his birth certificate when he filed his application last month. Since my birth is not on record what should I do to prove my age when I file my application?

A. Although a birth record is best to prove your age, other records may be used. For example, your marriage record may show your age at time of marriage, an insurance policy issued to you a number of years ago may show your age, or date of birth. A family Bible in which year birth is recorded may be sufficient to establish your age. We suggest you ask your social security office to examine any records you may have showing your age or date of birth, as you already may have sufficient records. If not, they will advise you of the records that can be accepted and the easiest way of obtaining them. By doing this now you may save a delay in receiving your first check.

Q. My father is now 65 and wishes to come in to the district office to file for his benefits. What will he need to bring with him?

A. His social security card; a record of his earnings for last year — W-2 form, or, if self-employed, a copy of his last year's tax return — 1040; Schedules C or F, and proof of tax being paid; an estimate of what he has earned this year to date; and proof of his age. If his wife is 62 she should come in with him, bringing her social security card, if she has one, and proof of her age.

Q. I will be 65 years old three months from now and will retire at that time. My wife, who is age 54, and I have a 14-year-old daughter. Will it be necessary for my wife to come with me when I file my application and what records will I need?

A. Your wife should come with you as she will need to file her own application. You will need to furnish proofs of age for yourself, wife and daughter. You will also need to furnish your W-2 forms or tax returns for the

RANKING GOP MEMBER SAYS CONGRESS TO "CARRY BALL"

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—A senior congressional Republican Monday agreed with a Kennedy adviser on the need to overhaul federal regulation agencies. But he said Congress, not the president, should do the revamping.

Rep. John B. Bennett of Michigan, ranking GOP member of the House Commerce Committee which deals with regulatory agencies, commented in an interview on a study made for President-elect John F. Kennedy by former Harvard Law School Dean James M. Landis.

Kennedy hailed Landis' report issued Monday as "a most important and impressive analysis" which should be studied by "members of Congress as well as the agencies themselves."

COMPLAINS OF PRESSURES

Sen. John A. Carroll, D-Colo., chairman of a Senate subcommittee studying administrative practices, called for a drive against "powerful pressure groups" which he said have stymied agency reform. He said Kennedy will provide the leadership for change, and that the present-elect had invited him to confer on the Landis report.

Landis has served as chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Civil Aeronautics Board and on the Federal Trade Commission. These are among the seven major regulatory agencies he discussed in often biting terms.

The so-called independent agencies have been set up by Congress over the years to regulate and hand down judgments on major economic activities.

"TOO COZY"

Landis pictured the agencies as ridden by outside pressures, as too cozy with those whom they are supposed to regulate, as snarled in delays and slipping in caliber of personnel.

He accused both President Eisenhower and Truman of a lack of concern for the agencies, of appointing commissioners for political reasons rather than ability to do the job, and failing to avoid outside influences themselves on international air cases which are sent to the White House by the CAB.

Landis called for a series of reorganizations to be made by the new president under reorganization authority similar to that which he said Congress had granted to Eisenhower and Truman.

Bennett, however, said "whatever reforms are needed ought to be legislated by Congress. One of the most important things is keeping these agencies independent."

2 IN POLITICAL ASYLUM SET TIME RECORDS

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Two of ex-dictator Juan Peron's policemen set a record this week for time spent in political asylum in a Latin-American embassy.

The brothers, Juan Carlos and Luis Amadeo Cardoso, have been living for 5 years, 3 months and 1 week in the basement of the Paraguayan Embassy.

That is a week longer than the famous stay of Victor Raul Haya de la Torre, leader of the leftist APRA party of Peru, who finally was allowed to go into exile six years ago from the Colombian Embassy in Lima.

EXTRACTED CONFESSIONS

The brothers Cardoso were attached to the Peron dictatorship's special section of the federal police. Their job was to extract confessions from politicians and citizens who ran athwart the Peron regime.

Moon-faced Juan Carlos and mustached Luis Amadeo are accused of specializing in the use of an electric needle while the victim was tied to a hard table with leather thongs.

Except for the restriction on their movements, Juan Carlos and Luis Amadeo are not faring so badly.

STILL WATCHED

They have repainted the walls of their basement apartment blue to their own taste. Relatives, free to visit them, have brought two radios, a television set and a double bed for each. They have their own telephone, and after the embassy's office hours they may walk in the garden.

A Catholic priest visits them. Occasionally their wives spend the night in the basement. The Paraguayan Embassy gives them $50 a month as pocket money.

But all these years federal police have maintained a determined watch outside the building.

past years, and a record of your present year's earnings. Be sure to bring your social security card. If your wife or daughter has a card, bring it along too.

Princess Margaret May Be Named Governor Of Bahamas

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—A close friend of the royal family said Monday that Queen Elizabeth II is considering appointing Princess Margaret governor of the Bahamas.

It could be a happy solution to a delicate and increasingly uneasy situation, what to do with Margaret and more particularly, her husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones has been unemployed for the last seven months since his marriage into the royal family.

Their friends say Margaret and her husband are not pleased at the thought of spending the rest of their lives in a glittering whirl of social events and a near puppet-like existence in the purple shadows of the British throne.

Armstrong-Jones will be 31 on March 7. Both are active, adept in the social graces and talented.

By tradition, members of the royal family and their spouses don't go into business, commerce, or engage in the arts for profit.

So Armstrong-Jones gave up a highly profitable and promising career as a photographer.

The Bahamas annually earn millions of pounds and dollars as a tourist attraction. With Margaret and Tony established in government house in Nassau, the Bahamas would earn many millions more.

If Margaret became governor of the Bahamas, she would share her life with a busy one.

Kennedy Sought Maximum Publicity Naming Cabinet

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect John F. Kennedy shows all the signs of being highly conscious of public relations and, perhaps, public reaction.

Whether this will affect his presidency by deterring him from some step which may create adverse public reaction remains to be seen.

One example of his awareness of public relations, particularly in timing and maximum publicity, is the way he announced his top appointments.

Another is his willingness to have his news conferences broadcast by television and radio while he's holding them.

Here's another: A woman reporter asked him a question and identified herself and her organization.

Called Story Inaccurate

Instantly he told her a story carried by her publication was inaccurate and he would have to look into it before dealing with her further.

Here's another: At the time his new son was born he was walking through the corridor of the hospital when he spotted a reporter from a national magazine. He offered congratulations on a story it had carried.

So he's either personally keeping abreast of what's being written or he's made it his business to be kept well-informed and up to date by his aides.

IKK ACTED QUICKLY

This is in contrast to President Eisenhower who once publicly said he did not do a lot of newspaper reading.

There is also a contrast between the two men in the way they publicly handled their cabinet appointments.

Eisenhower, after winning the 1952 election, announced the selection of his nine-man cabinet two and three members at a time.

This meant that in a relatively few days the complete cabinet selection had been reported in the press. And Eisenhower acted fast.

He made his first announcement by Nov. 20, 1952, and was finished by Dec. 1.

Kennedy took his time. His associates let it be known he was seeking the best advice he could find before reaching decisions.

He didn't announce his first cabinet appointment — Connecticut's Gov. Abraham A. Ribicoff as secretary of health, education and welfare — until Dec. 1.

Then day after day — although there were some lapses between days — he ticked off his cabinet.

He'd come out of his Georgetown home here, stand in the freezing cold with his latest appointee, name him, make a statement praising him and explaining his selection. And the new man would make a statement. He announced some of his appointments while he was at Palm Beach, Fla.

GOT MAXIMUM PUBLICITY

News photographers and television cameras duly recorded all this, day after day. And Kennedy, now at Palm Beach, is still making appointments on the sub-cabinet and lower levels.

But because of the way he handled all this, each appointment — by being the only one on a given day — got the maximum publicity in the press and on TV and radio.

It would seem reasonable to think Kennedy deliberately chose to do it this way because it is unlikely he was actually reaching decisions on a day by day basis.

For example: The Kennedy inner circle told reporters at least 10 days before Arthur J. Goldberg was announced as new secretary of labor that the decision on Goldberg had already been settled.

NO STRONG REACTION

It is noteworthy that Kennedy hasn't stirred up any very strong reactions, from liberals or conservatives, by his cabinet choices which can probably best be described as a group of liberal-conservatives.

Kennedy's cabinet may be a complete reflection of his own views and have no connection with any concern of his about public opinion or reaction.

But it is at least the kind of cabinet which gives him — as he starts on his presidency — a minimum of handicaps in the form of strong opposition.

LAW PARTNER OF DULLES MAY GET HIGH POST

(Editor's Note: Spencer Davis, veteran Associated Press writer who specializes in Far Eastern affairs, has drawn on long-established news sources for the following interpretive story on men reported under consideration for one of the state department's key posts.)

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A career diplomat and a former special ambassador who favors a flexible policy aimed at future recognition of Red China were reported under consideration today for the key post of assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs.

The assignment, a major one subject to congressional scrutiny, may well set the tone of the new administration in its approach to the difficult China policy issue.

Informed sources said the two in the forefront for appointment by President-elect John F. Kennedy to the post now held by career diplomat J. Graham Parsons are:

WAS SPECIAL ENVOY

Arthur H. Dean — former law partner of the late John Foster Dulles and special presidential envoy to Korea in 1953-54. He has testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that he favors a more flexible China policy. He said it should be aimed at creating an independent formosa guaranteed by the United Nations, together with recognition and a U. N. General Assembly seat for mainland China.

U. Alexis Johnson — U. S. ambassador to Thailand. He was closely associated with the incoming secretary of state, Dean Rusk during the Korean War when Rusk was assistant secretary for Far Eastern affairs. Johnson is noted as a skilled negotiator.

Others being mentioned include Arthur H. Burns, former Democratic delegate to Congress from Hawaii; Richard P. Conlon, president of Conlon Associates, Ltd., of San Francisco, and Prof. Robert A. Scalapino of the University of California at Berkeley.

WIDE EXPERIENCE

Johnson held prolonged talks at Geneva in 1956 and 1957 with Chinese Communist Ambassador Wang Ping-nan on the release of Americans held prisoner by Red China.

Johnson, then ambassador to Czechoslovakia, also sought a pledge from Wang that Red China would renounce force in its efforts to regain Formosa. The effort was unavailing.

Conlon undertook a study of U. S. foreign policy in Southeast Asia and the Far East for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in 1958 and is considered an independent authority on the area. He engaged Prof. Scalapino to write the China section of the study and it became a controversial segment of the Conlon report.

URGENT SHIFT

Scalapino urged a gradual shift in U. S. policy toward Red China. Initial steps, he said, could be taken by increasing communications such as trade and an exchange of newsmen.

Scalapino is also among those who favor a "two-China" solution — separating Formosa from the mainland. Neither the Nationalist nor the Communist Chinese are in favor of such a move.
